LEARNING HUBS

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN ON-LINE

September/October 2020

The Learning Hubs in September/October 2020 are on the theme of Safeguarding Children Online, including updates from the national research on digital practice, digital professionalism and online safeguarding.

The sessions will be led by Claudia Megele, the National Chair for the Principal Children and Families Social Worker (PCFSW), and Dr Peter Buzzi, a Director of Research and Management Consultancy Centre and the Digital Research and Practice Network. Both the trainers are recognised experts in the field of Online Safety.

At the learning hubs you will gain a greater understanding of:

- How children and young people are being exposed to online risks and online sexual harm from a young age.
- The impact of social media on brain and behaviour
- Child-centred practice
- Online risks

Who should attend:

The forums are aimed at front line practitioners in all agencies in Hertfordshire that have a role in keeping children and adults safe
